

Biopolymers: Present and Future Direction

18 April 2016

Silken Berlaymont Hotel, Brussels

8:30 to 9:00	Registration and Welcome Coffee
9:00 to 9:10	Welcome address Lurdes Soares, AIJN – European Fruit Juice Association (Belgium)
9:10 to 9:40	Obtaining biopolymers from waste generated in the agro-food sector: PHBOTTLE Project Ana Valera, PHBOTTLE Project Coordinator, AINIA Technology Centre (Spain)
9:40 to 10:10	PEF - from biomass to bottles. Jesper Van Berkel, Avantium (The Netherlands)
10:10 to 10:40	PHB formulation strategies to meet application requirements. Serafin Garcia, AIMPLAS - Plastics Technology Centre (Spain) Patricia Eisenberg, INTI - National Institute of Industrial Technology (Argentina)
10:40 to 11:10	PHB: opportunities for rigid packaging. Pedro Lopes, Logoplaste Innovation Lab (Portugal)
11:10 to 11:40	Towards fully renewable packaging. Michael Wamsler, Tetra Pak (Sweden)
11:40 to 13:00	Lunch
13:00 to 14:30	Training session: How Life Cycle Assessment can assist business and development decisions. Toon Ansems and Arjan Horsen, TNO (The Netherlands)
14:30	Closing notes

